Thank you, Friends, for the generous freewill offerings that you put in the entrance basket in order keep our Jazz Vespers program going.

Our Guest Musicians this Month are:

Bob Rawlings is originally from Pueblo, Colorado and has been in the Rogue Valley since 2014. He has played with Robbie DaCosta, Bishop Mayfield, Ed Dunsavage, David Scoggin, Peter Anastos, and Mark Hamersly. He also played in big bands; The Timberline Express, Southern Oregon Jazz Orchestra and the Esquire Orchestra of Klamath Falls.

Dan Fellman is originally from Portland but has been in Ashland for decades. He will be one of the guitarists. Besides RHC he plays a duo with Grant Ruiz and with the Trio Stolen Moments.

Dayton Mason is the youngster of the band. He's a local Ashland boy that plays all around the Rogue Valley as a solo, duo and the RHC (Rogue Hot Club) trio. Besides guitar, he also plays the harp in nursing homes and will play some bass in this show.

An email exchange in planning:

Hello Robin

I am very excited about playing on September 11. I'm putting together the show now. It looks like I'm going to be using the Rogue Hot Club featuring myself, Dan Fellman and Dayton Mason. We will be doing a variety of Django Reinhardt and gypsy jazz along with jazz standards. I'm looking forward to playing a variety of instruments on this one. I'll be playing the double bass, clarinet, Alto Sax, perhaps some piano, and I'm hoping to play the bass saxophone.

Artist of the Month:

This month we are featuring the pastel and paintings of

Marilyn Hurst

Marilyn says, “I feel as though I have been given a gift to nurture, develop, and share. Art has widened my horizons. It has been encouraging and wonderful to study and expand my limits with other artist friends. I have always loved to draw and paint but kept it on the back burner while raising a family. After some serious health issues, my art became more important than ever. I paint to express something that has touched my heart, such as a peaceful landscape, or some beautiful flowers, or to preserve the soul of an old barn. I am moved by all kinds of subjects and a variety of media, although I use watercolor, and pastel most frequently. Painting is my voice, my signature...a legacy of love.”
